APPENDIX A

For purposes of comparison, essential parts of the Atlantic City ordinance mentioned at page 14, supra, are here quoted:

"SECTION 1. That newspapers and periodicals shall be sold upon the highways or in public places of Atlantic City only by persons who shall have obtained a permit so to do, . . .

"SECTION 2. The Director of Public Safety may make regulations relative to the exercise of the privilege of selling, exposing for sale and offering for sale newspapers and periodicals within the limits of the City, . . . said regulations to be approved by the Commissioners . . .

"SECTION 3. That the Director of Public Safety be and he is hereby authorized to issue permits and badges to persons complying with the rules and regulations provided for in the preceding paragraph hereof. (No permit shall be issued to any child under the age of 16 years without application therefor being made by the father, guardian or person having control of such child.) . . . A fee of 25 cents shall be paid upon securing the badge herein provided for.

"SECTION 4. That such permit and badge, when issued, shall be non-transferable, and no badge shall be at any time worn by any other person than the one to whom it was originally issued.

"SECTION 7. . . . Any person who shall . . . violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of any amount not exceeding $25, or be imprisoned in the City Jail for five days in default of the payment of said fine. . . . "
